STIPULATION

The United States of America and defendants Ricky Donnell Abner and Charay Lamont Trent hereby stipulate and agree to the following evidence and agree that no additional evidence need be introduced with respect to this matter:

The following items of evidence were seized by the Drug Enforcement Administration (“DEA”) and Lynchburg Police Department (“LPD”) and are in the same material condition as when they were seized. The evidence has not been tampered with or changed by any party or by law enforcement in any meaningful way. The Defendants do not challenge the chain of custody for these items.

Further, that a forensic chemist’s certificate of analysis was produced after the testing of each of the identified items of evidence and that the Certificate of Analysis noted below is true and accurate and that, if the chemist had been called to the stand to testify, would have testified to the information contained in the exhibit.
